DR. HIRSCH, OF CHICAGO, ASKED TO CONSIDER A CALL TO TEMPLE EMANU-EL.

Chicago, Jan. 21 .- "The Tribune" says that mem bers of the Temple Emanu-El congregation, of New-York, have asked Dr. Emil G. Hirsch informally whether he can see his way to consider an offer to leave Sinal Temple to take up the work in that city. Dr. Gotthell, rabbi of the Congregation Emanu-Ei, is about to be made emeritus. Dr. Hirsch said it was probable that a call would be extended him from New-York, but was non-committal as to his acceptance.

It was learned officially last night that the committee of the congregation of Temple Emanu-El had asked Dr. Hirsch to succeed Dr. Gotthell. The latter has been considering the matter of tendering his resignation to the congregation for some time. He is seventy-two years old and wishes to retire from active work. His term expires in November. He will resign before that time, however, if a suitable successor can be found.

Dr. Gottheil has been rabbi of the Temple Emanu-El for twenty-eight years. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman is his assistant. The congregation over which he presides has long been generally considered the wealthiest and most important of the Hebrew congregations in this country. Many of its members are men of great wealth and influence in the business life of the city James Sellgman is president of the congregation, having succeeded to that place on the death of Lewis May some time ago. The building occupied by the congregation stands at Fifth-ave, and Forty-third-st., and is considered a fine specimen of Moorish architecture. Dr. Gotthell has long been known as a public spirited rabbi and was a familiar figure at meetings and demonstrations of various kinds. His advancing years have for some time given rise to the report that he was soon to retire.

The congregation of the Temple Emanu-El was formed in 1845 as a reformed Hebrew society, and has always been known as operal and advanced. Its first meetings were held in a Grand-st. courtroom. Its present building was erected in 1868 at cost of $600,000. It will seat about two thousand persons. The decorations are most elaborate. architect of the structure was Leopold Eldliz. The Rev. Dr. Samuel Adler, father of Professor Felix Adler, was long the rabbi of the congregation. The Temple Emanu-El is one of the few synagogues which maintain regular Sunday services, as well as the Saturday services.

Dr. Gotthell was born in the little village of Pinne, Prussia, in 1827. He was educated in the University of Berlin and in the Rabbinical College in Berlin. For five years he was an assistant min-

University of Berlin and in the Rabbinical College in Berlin. For five years he was an assistant minister at the Berliner Reform Gemeinde, and in 1880 he went to Manchester, England, to preside over the reformed congregation of that city. There he remained thirteen years.

In 1873 he came to this city as assistant rabbi of the Temple Emanu-El, of which Dr. Adler was the chief rabbi. Dr. Adler retired a year and a half later, and Dr. Gotthell succeeded him. Since then the Temple Emanu-El has doubled its membership. Dr. Gotthell has found many lines for his activity. He arranged in 1886 the first Jewish hymnbook with music to be printed in this country. Al the World's Fair he represented the Hebrow religion at the Parliament of Religions. It was to his efforts that the success of those who wished to have Sunday services as well as services on Saturday is due. Dr. Emil G. Hirsch is minister of the Sinal congregation, professor of rabbinical literature and philosophy in the University of Chicago, Editor of The Heform Advocate' and one of the vice-presidents of the American Liberal Congress. He is the son of Dr. Samuel Harsch, who, after thirty years ministry in Germany, was for twenty-three years the leader of a Jewish congregation in Philadelphia. Emil Hirsch took his A. M. degree at the University of Pennsylvania, and subsequently his Ph. D. at Leipsic, His first ministry was at Baltimore, where he worked for one year, and then was two years and a half at Louisville, Ky. He came to Chicago in 1890. He has for years been a member of the Public Library Board, and was prominent in the councils of the Columbian Exposition. His society, which is one of the leading Jewish congregations in America, is now one of the ten or a dozen Jewish societies in the world that hold their services on Sunday instead of on Saturday. The Republicans of Illinois piaced him at the head of the Presidential Electors on the National ticket in 1806.

ROOSEVELT TO BE A GUEST.

WILL ATTEND THE ANNUAL DINNER OF THE MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION.

THERE WILL BE A NUMBER OF PROMINENT SPEAKERS AT THE AFFAIR, WHICH IS TO TAKE PLACE AT THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB, BROOKLYN,

ON FEBRUARY 1.

Governor Roosevelt will be the guest of the Manufacturers' Association of New-York at their annual dinner, to be held at the Union League Club, Brooklyn, on Wednesday evening, February 1. The list of guests and the speakers who have been secured will make this one of the leading dinners of the season. A most attractive list of speakers will treat the leading problems of the day from the point of view of personal knowledge. The Rev. Dr. Josiah Strong will speak on "Expansion"; Gov ernor Leslie M. Shaw, of Iowa, chairman of the Indianapolis Monetary Conference, on "The Money Question"; Congressman Eugene F. Loud, chairman of the House Committee on Postal Affairs, will elucidate the excellences and shortcomings of the postal system, and Congressman Robert Taylor, of Ohio, will talk on the topic, "A Pleture in a Parallel." George F. Seward, ex-Minister to China, will be present, and may, as an anti-expansionist, speak in op-position to Dr. Strong.

GAS CONSUMERS COMPLAIN.

EXPRBITANT BILLS FOR DECEMBER-TELEPHONE RATES TOO HIGH.

Complaints from the consumers of gas in this city are increasing in number every day. House-holders especially are declaring that the law passed by the Legislature three years ago, providing for the decrease of five cents a thousan feet each year for five years, has brought them little relief. The bills presented by the gas con panies for the month of December, it is almost universally complained, are exorbitant beyond those of any previous month. Consumers of gas are leclaring that their requests for relief from the excessive charges of the companies are entitled to all the more consideration in view of the fact that the cost of the manufacture of gas has been greatly lessened of late years by the application new inventions. So effective have these processes proved that there is no room whatever for doubt that the gas companies could sell their product at 76 cents a thousand cubic feet and make a very handsome profit,

Those who use telephones are making a complaint based on analagous reasons. They declare that while there has been of late years a very general reduction in the cost of foodstuffs and clocking and a thousand and one things that comprise the necessaries of life, owing chiefly to a perfection of the methods of manufacture, there has been no corresponding reduction in the rates charged by the telephone companies. The Bed company, which is really the parent company, and to which all the others pay royallies, has recently increased its capital, and the quotations for the company's stock have taken some amazing bounds of late. Everything indicates prosperity for the telephone companies, but their patrons are complaining that there has been no reasonable reduction in charges for service. The persons who have been making such complaints in large numbers have similar fault to find with the dealers in anthracite coal, and they base their complaints on similar grounds. They point to the fact in discussing the sas companies, that the revenues of these companies have been very greatly increased within the last few years by the fact that many apartment-houses are fitted with gas ranges, by which the consumption of gas for cooking and heating purposes has been immensely increased. Consumers of gas are daily becoming more and more imparient with the treatment they are receiving, and are considering among themselves methods for redress. Those who use telephones are making a complaint
